Re: LG.Philips LCD Co., Ltd. v. ViewSonic Corp., et al.
USDC, Delaware, C.A. No. 04-343-JJF

Dear Cass:

On January 24, 2007, your firm served a Supplemental Notice of Rule 30(b)(6) of ViewSonic Corporation ("Notice"). We request that you withdraw that notice immediately.

First, the Notice attempts to set the deposition date for January 30, 2007. Pursuant to D. Del. LR 30.1, a reasonable notice cannot be less than five days. In conformance with Rule 6(a) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, we understand D. Del. LR 30.1 to mean five business or court days. Inasmuch the Notice provided only four days notice, it is defective.

Second, as you already know, ViewSonic, in the ordinary course of its business, does not categorize, classify, or concern itself with "the type and/or classification of mounting technology or mounting system employed or mounting system used" in any of its Visual Display Products (as that term is defined in the Notice). Consequently, ViewSonic cannot designate or produce a witness to testify about the topic identified in the Notice, and the Notice should be withdrawn.

In any event, ViewSonic's Motion for a Protective Order remains pending, and encompasses the Notice served last week. If LPL is of a different opinion, please advise by 4 pm PST today.

Sincerely,

Scott R. Miller
